JUNIOR GAMES 2017 BIRMINGHAM-24th JUNE STOKE MANDEVILLE-30th SEPT

The Junior Games is open to youngsters aged 5-18 with a physical impairment. The Games will provide the opportunity to try sports in a safe and friendly environment. The sports on offer will include climbing, wheelchair basketball, track and field athletics, cycling, sitting volleyball, tennis, archery and football*.

*This programme is subject to change.

The Junior Games provide participants with:

- An opportunity to participate in sport
- The chance to learn and develop coordination and motor skills
- A chance to meet other children and families with limb difference
- The inspiration to discover their potential through sport

Entry fee for participating children is £10 including lunch. Siblings are welcome to register and take part.

"The Junior Games is such a comfidence booster for Amma. She's made friends and learnt sports she would never have tried without it. It's even inspired her to join an athletics club"

Debbie, Mother
