Event information

An exciting fundraising challenge that anyone can take part in and become part of the community. We are asking 100 people from all walks of life to raise £100 towards the work of LimbPower. Anyone can join in, amputees, people with limb difference, family members, friends, carers, healthcare professionals, teachers etc. You can raise the funds in your own creative way, or you can choose from the 100 ideas we have put together. The campaign starts on 1st March and runs for 100 days until 8th June. To register your interest in taking part please complete the registration details below.

LimbPower require this information to be able to organise and evaluate this event. We will not ask you for any personal information which is not relevant to this event.
